

About Prophecy and the End of the Age

Be careful! There are a whole lot of people on the Internet predicting specific future end-time events that are nothing but guesswork. You can ignore them. There is no one who is going to predict a prophecy that has not already been written in the Bible. When you read about prophecy in the Bible you see only a few specific things. And these things are scattered throughout the Bible. In no one place in the Bible do you see detailed prophecies of the Messiah's first coming because they are scattered throughout the Bible sometimes hidden in the type and antitype language. In no one place in the Bible do you see detailed prophecies of the end of the age (world) because they are scattered throughout the Bible. Most of the nations involved in the end time wars are not listed in the Bible with today's names. It is only guess work to list the Old Testament nations' names with the names of today's nations or the main people involved. No where specifically in the Bible is listed any date for the end of the world (age) and the beginning of the Kingdom of God. The only time we can detect the time of the end of the age is when the Beast with the number 666 appears, when the beginning of the 1260 days begins and the 10 nation Beast is changed to the 7 nation Beast as explain in our Prophecy Papers. So far the 1260 days has yet to start. So at this time we are not announcing any specific date. Nor will we until the 1290 turns into the 1260s days as explained in the our Prophecy Papers.

Be awake, watch and pray,
